BIG OVATION FOR CLARK GRIFFITH

Washington's Manager Lauded at Banquet of Cardinal Club.

150 GUESTS PRESENT.

Names Mayor Fisher as His Assistant Manager—Promises to Pitch Johnson Against Cardinals.

For a second time Clark Griffith, manager of the Washington Baseba team of the American League, and the greatest leader of baseball in the world, received an overwhelming ovation at the hands of the Alexandria fans last night when he attended a banquet given in his honor by the Cardinal Athletic Club, the city's leading organization devoted to sports. The Mayor of Alexandria, city officials, business men, newspaper editors, bankers, and officials of the Chamber of Commerce and the Retail Merchants' Association together with a hundred or more thirty-third degree fans turned out to do honor to the man who has put Washington on the baseball map.

To say that the affair was a great success is to put it very mildly, for everybody had a great time, especially the leader of the Nationals. He frankly acknowledged that he has never had a better time anywhere than he does in Alexandria, and it cannot be doubted in view of the warm regard and affection in which he is held by the baseball lovers of this community.

The banquet was held in the Hotel Rammel and the guests were received in the large parlor on the second floor. Sylvester A. Breen, president of the Cardinals, introduced the guests to Mr. Griffith. The Washington manager was accompanied by a number of newspaper men from Washington, who seemed to have just as good a time as the guest of honor.

The banquet was served in the two dining rooms on the first floor, more than 150 persons being seated at the tables. The menu was as follows:

Cherrystone Oysters
Celery
Roast Philadelphia Turkey
Cranberries
Old Orkney Tongue, Virginia Style
Edenton Ham a la Rammel
Select Norfolks Fried with Saratoga Chips
Waldorf Relish Saltines
Chicken, Lettuce and Tomato Salads
Diplomatic Rolls
Neapolitan Ice Cream
Assorted Cakes
Cafe Noir Chesterfeld Cigarettes
(Decorations by Kramer Floral Company.)

When the delicious dinner had been disposed of, Mayor Thomas A. Fisher, who acted as toastmaster, introduced the guest of honor. The Mayor paid a magnificent tribute to Griffith as the man who has done more for baseball in this section of the country than any other. He assured him that Alexandria was behind the climbers to the last ditch and that it is the sincerest wish of the fans of this city to see him land the pennant.

After the tremendous applause that had commenced when the Washington manager rose to his feet had subsided, he took the guests into his confidence and told them many things about the national game. Among the things that were brought out in his speech were the following:

That the Federal League could not last as there was no room for another major league and that if the American League, as well organized as it is, were to try to operate on the circuit proposed by the outlaws they would have to go out of exsitence.

That the players were getting all the money there is in baseball and that only the owners of teams that stay in the lead are making money.

That Mayor Fisher of Alexandria, was his right hand man and was assistant manager of the Nationals. He told the assemblage that for more than a year the Mayor sat directly behind the player's bench and that he keeps his eye on him and when the Mayor nods it is enough to make him take out a pitcher who is wobbling.

That if somebody would kidnap Baker and Collins of the Philadelphia Athletics there would be no question but that the Washingtons would win the pennant.

That when Washington wins the pennant he will reserve an entire section of the grand stand for the Alexandria fans.

That on April 2nd, when the Nationals play the Cardinals an exhibition game at the Washington Coliseum he will put Walter Smokeball Johnson, king of all pitchers, in the box as he fears that his star pitcher, Dutch Schaffer, would prove too much a puzzle for the locals.

Following the Nationals pilot, the Mayor called on Ed Grillo, sporting editor of the Washington Star; Louis A. Dougher, sporting editor of the Washington Times; Al Stern, of the Washington Post; "Hip" Dugan, of the Washington Herald, William I. Betts, the well known umpire, Alderman J. Marriott Hill, one of the leaders in the promotion of sports in Alexandria, Samuel P. Fisher, corporation attorney; Harry Crump, manager of the Cardinals, Captain W. H. Sweeney, superintendent of public schools, H. D. Kirk, secretary of the school bord, J. T. Preston, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, Alderman Jacob Brill, and Robert S. Barrett, editor of the Alexandria Gazette.

At the conclusion of the banquet Manager Griffith was taken to a dining room on the second floor and introduced to the members of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons who were holding a banquet. Here he was given another ovtaion, the members of the lodge rising from their chairs and greeting the "old Fox" with three rousing cheers.

DELEGATE BIRRELL'S BILLS.

Alexandria Representative Introduces Sundry Measures.

Divorce laws will receive much attention from this General Assembly. As was stated in a dispatch from Richmond in yesterday's Gazette, a series of five bills on this subject was offered in the House yesterday by Delegate Birrell, of Alexandria. They provide how marriage licenses may be obtained, for procedure in non-support cases, for divorce, and for the return of marriage statistics in detail. Mr. Birrell has announced that he will fight for statutes that will prevent Alexandria being made a combination Gretna Green and Reno, it being at present an available place for runaway marriages, and for convenient divorces for people not bona fide citizens of this State.

In connection, with this subject, Mr. Barley offered a bill to require a court in which an undefended suit for divorce is pending to appoint a competent attorney to cross-examine witnesses for the complainant.

Mr. Birrell also introduced the following: A bill to amend and re-enact an act of the General Assembly of Virginia entitled an act to authorize the Governor to appoint a board of commissioners for the promotion of uniformity of legislation in the United States, approved March 3, 1898; to define their duties and to authorize the payment of their traveling expenses, approved March 28, 1903.

MEXICAN AFFAIRS STILL PERPLEXING

Rebels Reported to be Closing in Gradually Around Puerto.

DIPLOMATS AMAZED.

American Warships Are Expected to Proceed to City to Protect Citizens of the United States.

Mexico City, Jan. 23.—Three hundred American men, women and children are at Peureo Mexico, on the gul coast, where a big battle is expected today. The rebels are reported to be closing in on the town, and 1,000 federals were sent to its defense.

It is expected here that some of American warships at Vera Cruz will be sent to Puerto Mexico to protect the Americans and other foreigners.

Diplomatic circles are amazed at the action of Chas. Nelson O'Shaughnessy, who aided Senor Estanol, former cabinet member, under sentence of death, to escape from the country.

Members of the American colony were disposed today to criticise the charge.

O'Shaughnessey admitted his part in Estanol's escape, and said he acted entirely on his own initiative, without any word from Washington. He said he interfered because Estanol is an old friend.

FARM BUILDINS BURN.

W. R. Clark, Living Near Barcroft, Suffers Serious Loss.

Fire completely destroyed the house, barn, and outbuildings, and killed fourteen horses and other live stock belonging to W. R. Clark, who lives near Barcroft, a few miles from Alexandria. The flames were discovered at 11 o'clock Wednesday night and were not extinguished until 3 o'clock yesterday morning. Residents from Falls Church and the neighboring towns were attracted by the blaze, which lit up the entire country side. They flocked to the scene to aid the fire fighters, but they were unable to check the flames. Many who were too far away to reach the fire, crowded to high points of the surrounding country, and on the roofs of their houses, to watch the conflagration, which was plainly visible, even to residents of Washington.

WILSON POLICY BEARING FRUIT

First of Series of Bills Introduced in House and Others Ready.

TRADE COMMISSION.

Measures Cover Much Ground in Reference to Interlocking Directorates and Other Conditions.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 23.—President Wilson's message to Congress, suggesting anti-trust legislation supplemental to the Sherman law which would eradicate evils of big business and at the same their restore confidence and commercial activity, bore its first fruit when a bill to create an Interstate Trade Commission was introduced in the House.

Last night three more of the proposed bills to supplement the Sherman anti-trust act, suggested by the President, were made public, and will be introduced today. These three embrace:

Prohibition of interlocking directorates of industrial corporations, railroads, banking or trust companies, to be effective two years after aproval.

Definition of the terms of the Sherman anti-Trust act, to specifically include within the meaning of "conspiracy in restraint of trade," every contract, combination in the form of a Trust or otherwise within the meaning of the word "monopolize," certain definite offenses, all of which would be prohibited, and fixing guilt upon individauls.

A trade relations measure designed to prohibit "cut-throat" competition through price discriminations, discounts, rebates, territorial restrictions, etc., and giving to individuals injured by reason of anything forbidden in the Sherman act, the right to bring suits in equity against corporations against which decrees have been obtained by the government.

Chairman Clayton announced that a fourth projected measure, which would provide for government regulation of railroad securities, had not been drafted, and would be taken up by the House and Senate Interstate Commerce Committees.

WALLER WILL BE NAMED.

Virginian to be Appointed Major General in Marine Corps.

Washington, Jan. 23.—At a recent cabinet meeting, following the formal recommendation by Secretary Daniels that Colonel Littleton Waller be appointed major general, commanding the U. S. M. C., it was decided to postpone the transmission of the nomination until Tuesday next. It is the intention of President Wilson to talk with Colonel Waller.

Philippine officials and residents announced that Waller's promotion would be acceptable, intimating that the Samar incident, when Waller ordered the execution of eight natives, is not held against his record.

That Col. L. W. T. Waller is the choice of the people of Virginia for appointment as commander-in-chief of the United States Marine Corps was fully demonstrated when the Democratic legislative caucus, in session at Richmond, last night unanimously endorsed him to the President for appointment. The resolutions endorsing Colonel Waller were introduced by State Senator John A. Lesner, of Norfolk. They will be forwarded at once to the White House. Colonel Waller is endorsed at Washington by United States Senators Martin and Swanson and the entire Virginia Congressional delegation except William A. Jones, of the Newport News district, and A. J. Montague, of the Richmond district. Mr. Montague is not actively opposing Colonel Waller.

Old Dominion Lodge, G. I. A., to B of L. E., will have their third anniversary supper tomorrow night at Odd Fellows' Hall on north Columbus street.

Interesting News Notes About People of Alexandria—Happenings in Society.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Smoot entertained last evening at their home in Prince street, at one of the largest and most enjoyable card parties of the season. The house throughout was a bower of beauty and fragrance for everywhere the eye met vases of cut flowers and beautiful plants and palms. Mr. and Mrs. Smoot received in the dining room where the guests were first ushered to partake of a cup of punch. The mantels in the drawing rooms were banked with profusions of Killarney roses. Numbers of American Beauties swayed from their tall stems, nodding a welcome to all. The conservatory, lit by festive colored lanterns was a most inviting spot. Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Smoot were their house-guests, Mrs. Charles A. Webb, and Mrs. Sallie C. Hopper, of Baltimore.

SERMON ON SECOND ADVENT

(Query: Will Christ Ever Come Again?)

To be answered next Sunday night.

Toppling tomb-stones, falling mountains, opening graves, wailing maniacs, fiery heavens, and a burning earth, have been so promiscuously associated with the Lord's Second Coming, that many Christian people are coming to dread the event instead of praying for it as instructed in the Bible.

What is the manner of the Lord's second coming? Will he ever come again in the flesh? Will the earth ever be totally destroyed? Why should the Lord ever come again. Is it a time to be dreaded? ?

These and other important question will be definitely answered from the Scriptures by Mr. S. C. Kendall, of Washington, Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Surprise Theatre. As usual, in all I. B. S. A. lectures no charge will be made for admission and no collection solicited. A hearty welcome is extended to all.

FIRE IN A BED ROOM.

The alarm of fire this morning was caused by the discovery of a blaze in an upper room of the residence of Alfred Thompson, on the north side of King street, between Columbus and Alfred. Some bed clothing had caught fire. The flames were soon extinguished and no serious damage followed.

BICYCLE RECOVERED.

A bicycle belonging to a little son of Officer Nicholson was stolen a few weeks ago. A few days ago a boy was seen riding the wheel in this city and was stopped and the stolen bike taken from him. He gave his name as William Daniels, living in the Seminary Hill neighborhood. The youngster alleged he had been sent to this city for medicine. The wheel had been painted and other attempts made to disguise it. It was turned over to its owner by Justice Caton in the police court this morning. Young Daniels says he purchased the bicycle from a strange man.

BIG BLAZE AT FISHTOWN

Fire Breaks Out in Wooden Structures Shortly Before Midnight

Employees at the acid plant of the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company, adjoining Fishtown on the north, about a quarter to twelve o'clock last night saw flames mounting from the roofs of the fish houses of G. E. Price & Co., and Edward Hammond, and turned in an alarm.

The police were soon on the ground and in a short time many people attracted by the light gathered on and about the fish wharf. The flames were shooting upward from the roof, and the inflammable nature of the materials of which the structures had been built rendered it almost impossible to check the fire, although the department which was soon at work used all their means in efforts to stay the conflagration.

They managed to confine the blaze and no damage resulted to adjoining property. Fortunately conditions were calm at the time. The house and contents were but partially insured.

It is believed that fire was of incendiary origin. It is suggested that the houses have afforded shelter recently for itinerants or homeless men, two of whom, it is said, were seen prowling about the place Wednesday night.

FIGHT IN A SALOON.

A difficulty took place early last night in a saloon on Pitt street between Eugene Talbot and Herbert Chilcott, during which the latter drew a knife upon the former and was pushed down by Talbot.

Sergeant Scott and Officer Rawlett appeared and took both belligerants in charge. They were brought before the Police Court this morning when Chilcott alleged the trouble was brought on by Talbot who has treated him discourteously because he was not a member of the carpenter's union. Talbot denied the charge. Justice Caton imposed a fine of $5 upon each.

THIRD MARRIAGE.

Dr .C. W. Birdsall, Formerly of Alexandria Marries 23-Year-old Woman.

Dr. Charles Birdsall, 65 years old and Miss Myrtle Wilkes, 23 years old, elope from Lonaconing yesterday and were married in Cumberland, Md. by the Rev. H. F. Loomis, pastor of the First Baptist Church. Lloyd L. Schaffer, clerk of the Circuit Court, witnessed the ceremony.

Dr. Birdsall recently went from Midland to Lonaconing. His bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Wilkes. The parents were opposed to the match. Dr. and Mrs. Birdsall have taken apartments in Lonaconing. This is Dr. Birdsall's third marriage. His first wife was an Alexandria lady. His second wife died last fall. He had recently practiced his profession in Baltimore.

Dr. Birdsall resided in Alexandria about a quarter of a century ago. His office was for a time in the building at the southwest corner of Duke and Fairfax streets. He later moved to a residence on the southside of Prince street two doors west of the old Gazette office. He at one time acted as health officer. Dr. Birdsall subsequently removed his office from this city to Georgetown.

Darst, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, of Newport News, recently called as associate rector of St. James Church, yesterday tendered his resignation to the vestry to become effective on February 14. He has announced that he had accepted an invitation to come to Richmond, and therefore his resignation was not a surprise.

The resignation was accepted at a called meeting, and a committee was named to draft suitable resolutions of the regret of the vestry and congregation and in appreciation of his work during his charge in Newport News.

Rev. Mr. Darst married a daughter of Mr. George Wise, of Alexandria. She died recently.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

THORNTON AND THE D. A .R.

Love Feast Between Senator and Ladies Follows.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 23. — The threatened breach between a committee from Commonwealth Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and Senator R. E. Thornton, of Fairfax, over the modus operandi of obtaining the will of Martha Washington from J. Pierpont Morgan will not materialize. A love feast between the comely ladies and the polished senator was held yesterday, and the Daughters of the American Revolution not only admitted their error but promised their unstinted cooperation with the senator.

The trouble arose over the drafting of a resolution by the Daughters of the American Revolution providing that Mr. Morgan be politely requested to return the will. The resolution provided for the administering of sugar coated pills and cajolery. Commonwealth Chapter not only passed this resolution but wanted it adopted in the legislature.

The ladies instructed a committee to ask Senator Thornton to present their sweet scented resolution to the Senate in place of his bill calling for legal steps upon Mr. Morgan's refusal to return the will. The committee was further instructed to have some other senator present the resolution should Senator Thornton refuse to offer it in the senate.

Senator Thornton's "Dutch" was aroused. He is always most courteous and most gracious with the ladies, but behind his grace there was considerable determination. He immediately declined to offer the resolution and then made certain that no other senator in the upper house would offer it, thus spiking the guns of the uniformed committee of Daughters of the American Revolution. Senator Thornton's only criticism of the ladies' resolution was that it provided for steps which the offical of Fairfax county took a number of years ago—that is cajolery and honeyed speech. This for mof persuasion having utterly failed to move Mr. Morgan. Senator Thornton and officials of Fairfax county determined to take the cold legal action looking toward the restoration of the will to the courthouse where it forms part of the legal record.

The resolution seems to have been adopted by Commonwealth Chapter under the misapprehension that the bamut of cajolery and sweet speech had not already been run. When they learned today that they had propose measures which had been exhausted, they lost no time in hurrying to Senator Thornton and explaining that they did not know that moral persuasion had failed to impress Mr. Morgan and that they approvide heartily his bill providing for more drastic steps and would work most earnestly in co-operation with the solon for the restoration of the priceless document.

KILLS HIS BROTHER.

Edward Kefauver Acquitted by Magistrate of Fratricide.

Roanoke, Va., Jan. 23.—Edward Kefauver shot and killed his brother, Otto, 28 years old, yesterday afternoon in a suburb of Roanoke, after Otto had abused his sister Mary, and thrown the girl through a glass door of their home, severely cutting the young woman's face.

"He has saved our lives, for if this had gone on we should all have been killed," declared the mother of the two boys after the shooting. She declared her son Otto had threatened to kill the whole family for five years.

Edward Kefauver was held by the coroner's jury responsible for the death of his brother tonight. When arraigned before Magistrate Pollard for a preliminary hearing Edward Kefauver was exonerated.

This Lung Remedy Known Fifteen Years

If everybody who suffers from or is threatened with Lung Trouble would investigate the many cases where recoveries were brought about through the use of Eckman's Alterative, a remedy which has stood the test for nealy fifteen years, a strong opinion in favor of it would be the result. What it has accomplished for others it may do for you. Read this:—

145 E. 122d St., New York.

"Gentlemen: Last December I took a sudden cold, which developed into Pneumonia. The doctor did all he possibly could for me, but could not clear my lungs. One day I saw a testimonial in one of the papers telling of the good results someone had from taking Eckman's Alterative for a trouble of the lungs. I began taking it and soon felt good results. My lungs began to clear up and I began to gain in strength and was soon well enough to take up my work again. I am in better health now than I have been at any time. I am a missionary worker for the New York Home for Homeless and Friendless Boys."

COMMUTES DEATH SENTENCE.

Governor Mann Saves Pollard From Execution.

Ricvhmond ,Va., Jan. 23—Governor Mann yesterday commuted the sentence of Richmond Pollard, colored, who was sentenced to die in the electric chair on February 13 for the murder of Jim Chappel, an aged negro of Blackstone, from the death penalty to life imprisonment. In signing the commutation the governor said that he had been influenced in his action by the advice of Judge Southall and many prominent citizens of Blackstone. Judge Southall expressed the written opinion that Pollard is not deserving of the extreme penalty, while life-long friends of the man questioned his sanity.

According to the representations made in the petitions for clemency, Pollard is ordinarily of an amiable disposition, well thought of in the community, and slow to anger. At the time of the crime, say his friends, he was inflamed by drink and rendered temporarily insane by a personal controversy with the man he finally killed.

On June 7, 1913, Pollard shot and instantly killed Chappel, who was 76 years old, in a rough and tumble fight in Pollard's shoe shop. Pollard was engaged in repairing some shoes for Chappel, and when the latter came for them, he had completed the work. This led to hot words and finally to blows. Chappel was thrown out of the shop by Pollard, who, by that time,was in a towering rage,and told that he would be killed if he entered again. Chappel, however, did venture back in the shop, and in the ensuing fight was shot in the temple.

SALARIES INSTEAD OF FEES.

Measure Would Limit Officials' Salaries in Virginia.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 23.—Sentaor West, of Suffolk, has introduced a bill aimed at the fee system in the State. It would create a commission to consider the compensation of court clerks, examiners of records, treasurers, commissioners of revenue, sheriffs ,high constables, and city sergeants. It also would fix the maximum salaries of such officers until the commission has had time to regulate the matter definitely.

The highest salary to be paid any such official, under the temporary arrangement provided for in the bill, would be $3,500 a year in the cities or counties of more than 60,000 population. Richmond and Norfolk would be the only cities to come under this classification at present.

Cities and counties having between 45,000 and $60,000 population would pay these officials $3,000.Accorrding to the last federal census there is no city within the state with those limitations.

In cities and counties between 30,-00 0and 45,000 population the salaries would not exceed $2,500. Roanoke and Portsmouth would come in this class. Lynchburg, which was 29,494 in the last census, which is made a basis for the determination of the salaries, would come under the next lower class for which salaries must not exceed $2,000.

Mrs. Shepard Gives $35,000.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 23.—Mrs. Finley J. Shepard, who was Miss Helen Gould, has given $35,000 for the enlargement of the Army Young Men's Christian Association at Fort Monroe, Va. She gave the original building.

THE SPIRITUAL SIDE OF J. P. MORGAN.

In the last will and testament of the late J. Pierpont Morgan, these words appear: "I commit my soul into the hands of my Saviour, in full confidence that, having redeemed it and washed it in His most precious blood, He will present it faultless before my Heavenly Father, and I entreat my children to maintain and defend at all hazards, and at any cost of personal sacrifice, the blessed doctrine of the complete atonement for sin through the blood of Jesus Christ, once offered, and through that alone."

Should the present J. Pierpont Morgan carry out the spirt of the above, he will not hesitate for a moment to return the will of Martha Washington, which he now has in his possession, knowing it to be stolen property. The elder Morgan, like some others, when drawing near the close of their mundane existence, requested his descendants to carry out the teachings of Jesus Christ. It remains to be seen whether or not the present head of the Morgan house will defer to the request of his dead father.

He is, of course, better versed in his will than any one else, and has inherited millions from the testator. He should carry out all the provisions of the instrument, and surely restore stolen property.

This reminds us of an incident in history. In pre-reformation days a good and holy prior caused to be placed over his door the words, "Be open evermore, O thou my door, to none to be shut, to honest or to poor." At his death he directed that the sign be allowed to remain. His successor, however, did nor not relish the idea of carrying out this injunction, yet he dare not remove the words. He, however, changed the position of a comma which made the sentence read as follows: "Be open evermore, O thou my door, to none, to be shut to honest or to poor."

The present Morgan may have read the above.

A LOVE CURE IS FOUND.

At last a cure for love has been discovered. And the cure is accompanied by startling theories.

Dr. Maurice de Fleury, the "brain-storm" specialist, says he has found a serum—the exact nature of which he does not disclose—that will eliminate the passion when associated with isolation.

He places love as fifth among enslaving poisons, the first being alcohol, the second opium and hasheesh, the third morphine, cocaine and ether, and the fourth, tobacco, and declares that, whether it be platonic or passionate, it is a form of mental poisoning comparable with physical intoxication.

One typical case is given by the doctor. He undertook to cure a man who wished the treatment, but who resisted it, just as the typical morphinomaniac does. The patient wept, implored and reproached the doctor, but was dosed and kept from his lady love at increasing intervals until he lost his "complaint."

This new cure will not be popular with the young who are in the first dream of love, but it has great possibilities with older persons whose foolishness increases with age and with others who are not discriminating in the bestowal of affection.

And yet it would seem that science has a greater opportunity in the opposite direction. If some serum that would restore languishng or lost love could be discovered, the problem of divorce would solve itself.

BOY CAUSED ACCIDENT.

Child May Not be Punished For Spiking of Rails.

Charlotte, N. C., Jan. 22.—Two intra-state commissioners conducted a hearing Wednesday afternoon into the fatal railway accident, which occurred last Sunday night near Davidson, N. C., hurling Engineer J. E Curlee and Fireman A. H. Wilson to their death, the wreckage covering their bodies.

That Rufus Hall, 9 year old son of of Mr. and Mrs. John Q. Hall, of Davidson, placed an iron spike on the rail that threw the locomotive, tender and combination coach off the track was the general verdict of Southern Railway officers, who investigated the wreck.

A sister of the boy, Myrtle Hall, 8 years old, admitted that she and her older sister, Sadie, and her brother Rufus, had walked along the railway track Sunday afternoon and that the boy had placed a number of pieces of coal and other articles on the rails. Sadie Hall, 11 years old, who works in a cotton mill, also told of seeing her brother place obstructions on the rails.

The commissioners declined to give out the result of their examination. It is not believed, however, that the railway company will insist upon having the boy punished by taking him into court as no malice was shown in the mischevious pranks.

VIRGINIA "DRYS" PARADE.

Joshua Levering And W. F. Cochran Address Meeting.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 23.—Headed by the Rev. James Cannon, Jr., of the Virginia Anti-Saloon League; Joshua Levering and William F .Cochran, of Baltimore, 300 members of the Virginia Anti-Saloon League marched four abreast yesterday morning from the Seventh Street Christian Church, where the league's annual convention is in progress, to the south steps of the state capitol, where Dr. Cannon delivered an address.

Previous to the march Mr. Levering and Mr. Cochran addressed the body. Mr. Levering urged the delegates to go immediately to the halls of the legislators and present their desires frankly to all members of the General Assembly. After Mr. Cannon's address the delegates gathered in the gallery of the House of Delegates and heard the arguments for and against the Williams bill, providing for an election on State-wide prohibition.

The Elks' Dancing Committee gave a masked ball last night in their hall on Prince street which was attended by several hundred persons. Prizes were awarded to Miss Edna Drew, who was dressed in the costume of an "old maid," and to Mr. William Miller who represented a "leader of the 400." There were many original and beautiful costumes, and the prizes were awarded by the judges with a great deal of difficulty. One of the novel features was the music by the German band led by Harry Fleischmann. It was one of the most successful dances the Elks have given this season.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Mary Theresa Brill, daughter of the late Louis F. Brill, and Mr. Eugene Lee Saunders, Jr. The ceremony was performed Sunday, January 18th, at the parsonage of the Catholic Church, Rev. H. J. Cutler, officiating.

AFTER PASSING YEARS.

Alexandria Testimony Remains Unshaken.

Time is the best test of truth. Here is an Alexandria story that has stood the test of time. It is a story with a point which will come straight home to many of us.

Mrs. W. J. Whalen, 1103 Prince street, Alexandria, Va., says: "I willingly repeat the statement I gave for Doan's Kidney Pills some time back, as it is all true. I never let an opportunity pass to recommend this remedy. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of a constant pain in the small of my back. After I took them my health was better and I had no more dizzy spells or headaches."

Mrs. Whalen is only one of the many Alexandria people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Whalen had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c at all stores. NEWS OF THE DAY

A crowd of striking workmen who were celebrating "Bloody Sunday" anniversary were attacked by the St. Petersburg police yesterday and slashed with sabers. On "Bloody Sunday," January 22, 1905, a crowd of workmen were attacked by soldiers while marching to the palace to present a petition to the Czar and many were bayoneted.

The Vienna Correspondent of the London Daily Telegraph reports that Turkey and Bulgaria have concluded an offensive treaty against Greece. The Daily Mail's Vienna correspondent reports that Turkey has warned the powers that she will refuse to accept their unjust decision concerning the Aegean Islands, and will do her utmost to regain Mitylene and Chios.

Mounted militiamen with drawn swords yesterday afternoon repeatedly charged a crowd of 1,500 strikers and strike sympathizers who attempted to march through Trinidad, Colo., to the San Rafael Hospital to rescue "Mother" Jones, who is held by the military authorities. Rocks and sticks were hurled at the militiamen by a throng of excited women. Numerous arrests were made. The militiamen repeatedly rode down the crowd, but so far as is known no one was badly hurt.

After two hours spent in making a round of the downtown cafes of Washington last night, a man said by the police to be Gustavus B. Maynadier, of Baltimore, formerly an employe of the bureau of soils of the Department of Agriculture, directed the chauffeur whom he had engaged to transport him on his merry-making trip to drive him around the Speedway, and as the machine whirled away on its "sobering-up" journey placed a revolver to his temple and fired a bullet through his brain, causing immediate death.

Fire, which for a time, threatened the city owing to a stiff wind, destroyed 6,000 bales of cotton, the compress of the Fort Worth, Texas Compress Company, and twenty-five small houses late yesterday. Three docks were burned over and the loss amounted to $600,000, of which $550,000 was suffered by the compress company. The fire is believed to have been caused by a spark from a locomotive. The Fort Worth and Denver Railroad sustained a loss of $15,000. Ten of its freight cars were destroyed and its freight depot badly damaged.

BETRAYED GIRL; WED MOTHER.

Higgins Accused by Relatives of His Slain Wife.

Galesburg, Ill., Jan. 23.—Betrayal of Julia Flake, fifteen-year-old author of the "come over and kill mother," letters, was one reason why Robert Higgins married Mrs. Flake, mother of the girl, whose murder is charged against him, according to letters produced yesterday by relatives of the slain woman.

The new letters were produced by a sister of the murdered wife after Higgins repudiated his confession that he and the fifteen-year-old girl conspired and killed his wife and mother because they loved each other. Soon after Higgins married Mrs. Flake the girl wrote to her aunt:

"Higgins says he would not have married mamma if it hadn't been for me. Ma said 'Why didn't you wait and marry Julia?" He said, 'She wouldn't have me."

Albert Higgins, father of the man accused of murdering his wife, yesterday said that in addition to spending his whole fortune to save his son from the gallows he will do everything he can to protect Julia Flake.

"It's a shame the way that poor girl has been treated," said Higgins, Sr. "I don't believe she ever did a wrong act in her life. She is the victim of the same plot that has snared my son."

SMOTHERED BABY TO DEATH.

Twelve-Year-Old Negro Boy Confessed to Chatham Jury.

Danville, Va., Jan. 22.—Twelve-year-old Jim Graves, a negro, told a Chatham jury that he had held the palm of his hand over the mouth of a three weeks old baby he was nursing a week ago until it was dead. He explained that the baby would not give him a small plaything it had in its hand. The jury found the boy guilty and Judge Harvey ordered him committed in the reformatory.

PROPOSED FORTIFICATION.

Bill to be Presented to Congress Will Not Carry Appropriation At Cape Henry.

Washington, Jan. 23.—It is learned on good authorit ythat the fortifications appropriation bill, which will be reported to the House soon, will not carry any additional money for the purchase of land at Cape Henry upon which to erect a mammoth fortress for the protection of Norfolk, Richmond, Baltimore and Washington from a hostile fleet in the event of war between America and some foreign power.

The bill last year carried $150,000 for this purpose. It developed that the property owners at Cape Henry would not sell for that sum. It is estimated, on the basis of the property holders' figures, that it will require at least $125,000 additional to get the land. The war department, after an investigation of the matter, has ordered that steps be taken to condemn the land with a view of ascertaining approximately what it will cost.

The appropriations committee on account of the activity of representative Holland, held the Cape Henry fortress project in a favorable light and had the land been secured, there is no doubt that the bill to be passed at this session would have carried a large sum for the starting of work on the plans of the fortress.

The Virginia Legislature will also be asked to change a statute enacted several years ago aimed at steps to reacquire that part of the original District of Columbia ceded back to Virginia years ago. Under the present Virginia laws should the Federal government condemn the land at Cape Henry and construct a fortress it would not have police powers over its territory, and the State of Virginia would have the right to send an officer into the government reservation. Assurances have been made the War Department official that this act will be changed by the present session of the Virginia Legislature so that the Federal government, should it acquire the land at Cape Henry for military purposes ,will have complete police authority over it.

SIEGEL NOW PENNILESS.

Head of Chain of Department Stores Declares He Hasn't a Cent.

New York, Jan. 23.—"I have nothing. Not a cent. I used to draw to $4,000 salary every month from my stores. Now I have no income. I am penniless."

This statement was made by Henry Siegel, head of the department stores in New York, Chicago, and Boston, at the hearing being conducted by Judge George C. Holt, special master appointed by Federal Judge Hough at the request of the receivers for the Siegel stores and the Siegel private bank.

Once known as a "merchant prince," and able to draw his check for $1,000,000, Mr. Siegel today declared all his property is mortgaged and that he has to live in a cheap apartment hotel.

"My home at Eighty-second St., and Madison avenue cost me $300,000 and $10,000 to maintain," said Mr. Siegel. "Now it is mortgaged for $145,000 and I cannot afford to live there. I own a ten-story loft building which cost $300,000, but it is mortgaged too. My seventeen-acre estate at Mamaroneck cost me $175,000, but it is mortgaged for $25,000, and there are other liens against it. I was chief stockholder in the Siegel Realty Company which owned the property occupied by Simpson Crawford Company. We could not meet a $100,000 debt in August so I turned all my property over to A. Leo Prince from whom we bought the Rothenbery store, so that he draws all the rentals."

In the presence of a room full of diners at the Seaside Hotel at Honolulu, Wednesday night, a man known by the name of Woodward, who arrived on the steamer Sonoma, of San Francisco, shot and killed his former wife and then committed suicide. The woman had married Charles A. Stewart, of San Francisco, last Saturday. She came recently from San Francisco and was married under the name of Margaret Phypers. Immediately after the ceremony Stewart left for Hilo. Mrs. Stewart remained at the Seaside Hotel, where she had been staying. After she had taken a seat in the dining room, Woodward, whose right name is believed to be A. W. Wagner, entered. He walked up to Mrs. Stewart's table, and after a few words had passed between them he drew a pistol and began firing. Both died almost instantly.
